

Junkyard Heaven

Lyrics Trine-Lise Væring/music Fredrik Lundin

Do you know that litter
Contains both Dust & glitter
That I've come to understand
Cause I'm the garbage man

I carry out your sorrows
Leave a fresh tomorrow
As part of my master plan
Cause I'm the garbage man

So if you miss a beat
Don't stamp your feet
Come look for it in junkyard heaven
Where I have kept a box
With all the stuff
You thought you'd never need

Everything you've wasted
I picked up and graced it
Gave it yet another chance
Cause I'm the garbage man

Once misplaced emotions
And the hearts you've broken
I have held them in my hands,
Cause I'm the garbage man

If you miss all the above
Or loose your love
Come look for it in junkyard heaven,
And with a little luck
We'll find the stuff
You realize you need

Feelings you've dismissed
Fragments of a kiss
I have made sure they were canned
Cause I 'm the garbage man

Plans that you've discarded
Friends with whom you've parted
I've taken care of them
Being what I am

And if one day you find you've lost your soul
It's safe with me in junkyard heaven
Cause I have kept a box
With all the stuff
You thought you'd never need
You thought you'd never need
You thought you'd never need
